

On the North wall of the Baggrave chancel, inclosed with iron rails, is a tablet, with these arms: Quarterly; 1. Azure, fretty, Argent, Cave; 2. and 3. Ermine, on a bend Sable, three whales heads Or, Whalley; in the fefs point, a crescent Or. Crest, on a wreath, a greyhound currant Sable; motto, SOYES LOYAL.

Alto the above quarterings; impaling, Or, a fefs between two chevrons Sable, Lisle; Plate XLI, fig. 2, 3.

And on each side, the cyphers "F.C." and "F.M."

" Monumentum Francisci Cave, de Baggrave, ac. qui obit die an^o 15...⁶ et Margar' uxore' suae, quae ob. 26 die Octob. an^o 1568."

